Slogger Sullivan Welcomed to New Orleans.

He Shows Himself to a Select Few and Drinks Ale.

Kilrain at Cincinnati and Looking Travel-worn.

The Friends of the Two Pugilists Becoming Fiercer in Their Partisanship—Betting Men Not Busy.

By Telegram to The Times.

NEW ORLEANS, July 4.—[By the Associated Press.] A large crowd gathered at the Queen and Crescent depot this morning to receive John L. Sullivan and party, who were expected at 11 o'clock. When the train arrived, much to the disappointment of the waiters, the men were not on board. Those gentlemen to whom had been entrusted the management of the affair drove out to the Gentilly crossing, three miles from the depot, and there intercepted the train. Sullivan, Muldoon and Cleary entered a carriage and were driven to private quarters. The party did not proceed to the Spanish Fort, as was anticipated, as there was a Fourth of July celebration there, and the trainers are determined to keep Sullivan quiet. Sullivan appeared in splendid condition physically. He was dressed in a new suit, and will doubtless be smuggled in. Sullivan visited the rooms of the Young Men's Athletic Club this evening for an hour's exercise.

At 5 o'clock Sullivan, Cleary and Muldoon crossed over to the Gymnasium Club from their quarters, being greeted with cheers. A great crowd was present, and the police were on hand to preserve order. After about an hour's exercise the three men bathed, were rubbed down and proceeded to the meeting-room of the club, where refreshments were taken. Sullivan and Muldoon drank ale, and at 7 o'clock they returned to their quarters.

The advent of Sullivan caused his friends here to become jubilant, but in no wise abated the enthusiasm at Washington. They are more confident than ever that their man will come out of the battle the victor. They hold that the odds offered on Sullivan are caused by a sentimental feeling, and when Kilrain puts in an appearance the current will be turned. Fools were being sold tonight with odds offered on Sullivan, but the sale will be continued every evening, and the result may be different. Sullivan and party may doubtless leave early in the morning for the Spanish Fort, where he will remain in training until the day of the fight.

There appears to be a good deal of ill-feeling between the partisans of Sullivan and Kilrain. About the hotel roundups there were a good many acrimonious discussions in which the expletives used were more forcible than elegant. There seems to be a disposition on the part of Sullivan's friends to get every dollar there is in sight, and the question of admitting even members of the local press is causing some bitterness among the respectable managers.

KILRAIN AT CINCINNATI. CINCINNATI, July 4.—A large crowd assembled at the station this morning to meet Jake Kilrain, who arrived in this city. As Kilrain was about to descend from the car, two large cakes of ice were placed on his car steps impeding his progress. A bystander observed: "That's a rather cold reception, Jake, but you are all right." Kilrain was dressed in a plain dark suit and wore a flannel shirt. It was evident that he bore his long journey badly. He looked pale and worn, and his eyes were dull and sunken.

In reply to a reporter's questions, Kilrain answered: "I am feeling first-rate and could not be in better trim; am sure of winning."

As the train was late Charlie Mitchell and Crescent train failed at Eighth street so that the party could proceed on its journey. When it reached Eighth street, however, it was too late, the train had gone, and the party then went to the Burnside house. On the trip from Baltimore Kilrain occupied the first berth, and he did not get out of it until he reached New Orleans. All along the route hundreds of people gathered at the railroad stations to see him. He was met by a large number of people at the hotel. He is very confident of his friend's success. "Kilrain is a good man, a sober man all his life, and Sullivan has been a lush. Sullivan will be whipped before he knows it."

BULLY IN THE FAVORITE. The feeling in Cincinnati seems to be that Kilrain has very little chance against his opponent, but there is comparatively little betting on either man, because, as a prominent sporting man of this city says, nobody is betting on the man who has no body believes it will not come off. Another says there are plenty of men willing to bet on Sullivan, but they have no takers. Kilrain's party numbers about 20 men. Charlie Mitchell, Kilrain's trainer, is a prominent figure. Among others are Dominic McCaffrey, Billy Madden, Ed. McFadyen, Pat Rooney, John E. Murphy, Billy Collier, George Cassidy, Pony Moore and J. R. Root.

The feeling in the city with respect to Kilrain seems to be one of disappointment, though those who have had a chance to see him closely say that his muscles are hard and that he is in first-class condition. Today Kilrain took no exercise whatever, not even so much as to take a walk, but kept close to his room at the Burnside house, and few of the callers had a chance to see him. The betting tonight is very slow and for small sums, the usual odds being $10 to $7 against Kilrain. After the disappointment at missing connection here it was first intended to go tonight, but as it was learned the difference in the time of the train tomorrow, preferring to spend only one night in the sleeping car.

Kilrain retired early tonight, and will leave tomorrow on the train which will reach New Orleans at 11 o'clock Saturday morning, provided no delay occurs.

A CANARD. Rumors Traced Up About French Partisanship.

Several days ago the following letter was received at the TIMES office: "Editor Times: It is claimed that a large proportion of the French citizens in Los Angeles county claim allegiance to the French Government and vote regularly at our elections. They report annually with their passports to the French Consulate here, and are 'vised' as French citizens, and afterward regularly go to the polls and vote. It will be well to investigate the matter. Mr. Loeb, the consular agent, can possibly give further particulars."

A TIMES reporter called on Mr. Loeb of the firm of Stern, Loeb & Co., the consular agent, to whom the letter was shown. After reading it, Mr. Loeb said that there was no truth in the statements as to passports, which have virtually gone out of use. The writer of the letter, Mr. Loeb said, had been "something, but like other people who do not investigate matters, jumped to a wrong conclusion. What he had signed were the military records of young men who came to this country, so that in case they went back to France they would not be liable to penalties as deserters. Even this was playing out, as most of the young men who came to this country came out with the intention of making this their permanent home. It was safe to say that 99-100ths of all the French residents of Los Angeles were citizens of the United States, and if they voted, they had a right to do so.

TWEAKED HER NOSE.

Mr. Velsir Indulges in Some Post-matrimonial Pleasantries.

A little incident occurred on Spring street yesterday afternoon, just after the procession passed, which was not generally noticed. Mrs. James Velsir was standing in front of McDonald's shoe store talking to ex-Policeman Manning and his wife, when her husband, James Velsir, from whom she had been divorced, passed by, and, seeing her, leaned over Manning's shoulder and caught her by the nose, tweaking it severely, at the same time remarking: "You won't speak to me on the street, will you?" He offered no further violence at the time, but went away.

He returned in 15 or 20 minutes, when he caught his wife by the arm and drew his arm back as if to strike her, but seemed to reconsider his intention, and again went away. Later, it is said, that he wanted a police officer to arrest her, but as she had done nothing, this was not done.

Mr. and Mrs. Velsir were divorced once, after which they made up again, and were remarried, but failing to agree, they again separated.

THE RACES.

PROCTOR KNOTT REDEEMS HIS REPUTATION.

Spokane Beaten by the Great Kentuckian at Chicago—Race-land Wins a Big Victory at Monmouth Park.

By Telegram to The Times. CHICAGO, July 4.—[By the Associated Press.] The attendance at Washington Park was nearly 15,000 today. The track was slow but safe. The weather was pleasant. The event of the day was the Sheridan stakes, in which Proctor Knott defeated Spokane.

At the three-quarters Proctor was four lengths ahead, and Kiley was visibly urging Spokane. Soon after turning into the stretch a grand bout of exultation went up from Proctor Knott's army of backers, as it was soon seen that both Spokane and Retriever were catching the whip hard, while Proctor Knott was still striding along at his ease. The shout changed to a tremendous roar as Proctor Knott swept past the judges three lengths before Spokane, and Retriever two lengths away. Once Again was fourth. FIRES.

A GOOD MANY ALARMS BUT ONLY ONE BLAZE.

One of the Incidents of Young America's Celebration—Stansbury Bros. & Harvey's Feed and Coal Yard Burned Out—A Boy's Heights Blaze.

Extra precautions had been taken yesterday to guard against fires, and although there were more than the usual number of incipient blazes, they were discovered and extinguished before any damage was done. Detective A. B. Lawson of Lawson's Merchants' Patrol had a number of extra men on duty, and the police were instructed to keep a close lookout.

The first fire was between 2 and 3 o'clock yesterday morning at Washington Park. The burning decorations on the reviewing stand at the Nadeau Hotel were set on fire by some boys who were exploding crackers in the street. It was discovered by Night Watchman Jordan, and extinguished by Burns just as it was breaking out into a blaze. Mr. Burns slightly burned his hands, but the fire did no serious damage, and a yard or two of burning put everything in shape.

The next fire was at the Harris block, on Hill street, at 3 o'clock in the morning, where a wooden awning was burned, and the woodwork under the bay windows. The burning decorations on the reviewing stand at the Nadeau Hotel were set on fire by some boys who were exploding crackers in the street. It was discovered by Night Watchman Jordan, and extinguished by Burns just as it was breaking out into a blaze. Mr. Burns slightly burned his hands, but the fire did no serious damage, and a yard or two of burning put everything in shape.

At 10:30 o'clock a Chinese fireworks stand, fronting on the Plaza, went up in smoke, and for a few seconds it looked as though the row of old adobe would go, but the fire was put out with a few buckets of water.

About 1 o'clock p.m. the decorations on the Board of Trade building, at the corner of First and Fort streets, caught on fire, but were soon put out, and half an hour later the same thing happened at the Wilson block, at the corner of First and Spring streets, with the same result.

About 2 o'clock a pile of rubbish in the rear of Postmaster Preuss's residence, on Fort street, just north of First, was set on fire by a rocket, but a few buckets of water put a stop to the incipient conflagration.

About 2:30 o'clock the decorations on the Mora Castle, on Main street, caught fire from the explosion of a bomb, and might have resulted disastrously, but for the prompt measures taken to stop it.

About 3 o'clock one of Lawson's patrolmen discovered a blaze in the awning of the Crystal Palace, which he extinguished in a few minutes.

At 4 o'clock the Standard store, at the corner of Main and Spring streets, was discovered to be on fire, but was extinguished before any damage was done, beyond burning a few small holes.

At 4:35 o'clock Wynn's warehouse, on New Main street, was discovered to be on fire, and had evidently been smoldering some time before any one saw it. It was put out by the Abbott boys, one of whom, a Spaniard named severely burned. This was the most serious fire during the day, and but for the prompt action taken might have resulted disastrously.

Besides the above, the awnings in front of Hale's dry-goods store, on Spring street, below First street, caught fire during the afternoon, but were extinguished before any damage was done.

About 8:45 o'clock an alarm was turned in from box 24, at the corner of Buena Vista and College streets, caused by the burning of a frame barn belonging to the Standard store.

Ybarra, situated on the back end of Velsir's place, at No. 424 Buena Vista street. The barn contained a lot of hay, etc., all of which was consumed. The total loss on the building and contents was $500, on which there is an insurance of $100, placed with the agency of Hayner Bros. Officer Dugan discovered the fire and turned in the alarm.

Yesterday evening a building, on Boyle Heights, occupied by Cobb & Buell, on the first floor, caught fire in the roof, and burned through to the upper story, which was unoccupied. The fireboys turned out and saved the building in good style. The damage was mostly caused by water, and will probably not exceed $500.

Last night at 10 o'clock the frame building at No. 328 South Fort street, occupied by Stansbury Bros. & Harvey, as a wood, coal and feed depot, was totally destroyed by fire. A corral is also run in connection with the woodyard, the building being situated in the same lot, but some distance from the building. There were quite a number of horses and vehicles in this building, all of which were got out without damage. Nothing is known as to the origin of the fire. Sergeant Jeffery and Officer Bevin, who were the first to see it, said that the flames burst out of the roof, and that in a few minutes the whole structure was ablaze. Officer Bevin turned in the alarm. Other persons in the neighborhood say that they heard an explosion, and that in a few seconds after the fire burst out through the roof. Mr. Stansbury, who lives in a small frame building in the same yard, said that he had no coal oil or gasoline about the building, and that he never allowed a light of any kind to be taken into the house. He was of the opinion that it was set on fire by tramps who were sleeping in the air, but admitted that he might have been caused by a spark from a firecracker or skyrocket. He could not say what his loss was or the insurance, but said that he had some. At a low estimate the loss would run from $2500 to $3000.

At 12 o'clock all the horses liberated had been caught except two, a mouse-colored horse belonging to a doctor and Will Beach's silver-tail Dandy.

During the afternoon a bomb exploded on the awning of Hance's drug store, on North Spring street, and set it on fire. There was a lively scare for a few minutes, and the awning burned merrily, but the energetic efforts of Dr. Wright were sufficient to allay the fears of the spectators and prevent further damage than a large hole.

McNulty Resigns. John McNulty, receiver for the Wash-Bell Railway, has just issued from his office in Chicago a circular notifying his employees that he has resigned in favor of the company, who will conduct the business in the future. Mr. McNulty thanks all of the employees for the faithful manner in which they have attended to their duties during his administration and concludes by giving them credit for the thrifty condition of the road at present.

Lady Novelists. (Philadelphia Times.) There exist in the English language many regions of uncertainty, but in one at least of modern phrases there is now no longer room for misconception. A lady novelist is not a person who writes for ladies.

HE STUMBLED.

An Old Man Fell Down a Flight of Steps.

Last night about 10 o'clock an old man named M. L. Stephens, who lives at No. 403 West Second street, fell down the steps leading up to Green's lodging-house at No. 151 Upper Main street, injuring himself severely. Stephens said that he went to the place to see a friend, and stumbled down the steps in the dark. The patrol wagon was sent for, and Stephens brought to the police station, where Dr. Wing attended him, after which he was sent to his home.

Stephens is a very respectable-looking old man, and says that he was formerly a member of both branches of the Ohio Legislature.

Obscene Language. Last night about 8 o'clock a man named J. Relehan was arrested by Officer Todd near the corner of Main and Third streets and brought to the station, where he was booked for using obscene language.

Relehan's team was standing near the curb, when another vehicle accidentally ran into his wagon, whereupon he commenced abusing the unfortunate driver, using the vilest language. As the streets were filled with women and children, and the fellow would not desist, Officer Todd brought him in.

Who Cut Him? Yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock a German who runs the United States butcher-shop on Temple street, came into the Eintracht saloon on Spring street with his hand cut. He said that he had been cut by a man just outside the saloon. He did not know who his assailant was. He was taken up to Hance's drug store, where the wound was dressed. The butcher said that he was not in any row, and did not know how or why he had been cut.

One Waiting for Him. (New York Tribune.) Tramp: Thank you, ma'am, for giving me the grub, but I can never eat without a fork. Farmer: Well, amble along and you'll find a fork in the road a little further on.

Bituminous Rock Pavement. Experience in this class of pavement has demonstrated what was claimed for it when it was first placed upon the streets of Los Angeles, to wit, noiselessness, durability, cleanliness, and its ability to stand the weight of heavy vehicles, trucks, etc. Although the process is still in the advocacy of the passage of an ordinance, making it an accepted pavement in this city. Since its adoption here, about six miles of streets have been paved with the San Luis Obispo bituminous rock. The fact of its ability to withstand heavy traffic has been thoroughly demonstrated by the fact that the street outlet to the heavy trucking of this city. This street was paved two years ago last April with a six-inch concrete foundation, with a surface of two inches of San Luis Obispo bituminous rock. A COMPLETE REVIEW OF THE YEAR.

The Annual Trade Number of THE TIMES, now ready, is the most complete and interesting publication of that character ever published in Los Angeles.

NOTABLE FEATURES—It contains a business review of the year, embracing a great mass of valuable facts bearing on the city and country; a thorough exposition of our natural resources—mineral, vegetable, commercial and climatic; a review of the rate of immigration from all foreign countries; a complete record of the progress made during the height of the real-estate excitement; a carefully compiled exposition of the varied industries which Southern California offers to the health-seeker, the homeseeker, the investor, the tourist, being especially full of facts regarding the numerous pertinent subjects. It contains more solid information about the country than could be crowded into the compass of a hundred long letters, and for a few cents and the expenditure of a few minutes' time in writing the address you will receive it free of charge. You can get it at once, and have all the facts at hand. For $6.00 a year you can supply ten families in the frozen East with information that may lead them to join the army of pilgrims to Southern California, to their own and the nation's benefit. No one can afford to neglect this opportunity. The price is so low that it will be seen that no better use can be made of a dollar than by purchasing theewith the copy of the great Annual Trade Number of THE TIMES. Not one-tenth of the pleasure cost.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

There is an undelivered telegram at the Western Union Telegraph office for A. Theo. Bruegel.

Books and magazines, free, for the use of the inmates of the Soldiers' Home, can be obtained from Mrs. O'Melveny, 528 Pearl street, if applied for by Gov. Tretchel, giving no trouble or expense to the donor.

Yesterday was the most quiet and orderly Fourth of July ever had in the city. Aside from three or four drunks, and several lost children picked up, there were but three arrests by the police during the entire day, and none by the constables.

W. T. Knox, who swore to a complaint against Mrs. Grayson, charged her with embezzlement, acknowledged Wednesday that he had made a mistake, and forthwith proceeded to pay costs and dismiss the case. This is regarded as a complete vindication.

A boy named Floyd Benedict was arrested by Officer Bell yesterday morning on Main street, near the Plaza, and brought to the police station, where he was locked up on a charge of petty larceny. When a Chinaman's stand was set on fire, Benedict grabbed up three bunches of fireworks and made off with them.

Several of those interested in the recent base-ball match, between the police and constables, for the benefit of the Johnstown and Seattle sufferers, want to know why there has been no report, and why the money has not been forwarded to the sufferers. The gentlemen having the matter in charge will probably answer the question.

Yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock a man named W. S. Marshall assaulted a small boy named Bennie Ferner, on Olive street, near Sixth. Officer Downie arrested Marshall and brought him to the police station, where a charge of assault was placed against him, and he was released on depositing cash bail for his appearance.

There was but one arrival at the County Jail yesterday, Thomas Heryford, the father-in-law of the man who shot and killed Bill Tweedy, near Lancaster, Tuesday afternoon. Heryford is charged with being accessory to the crime, and was brought down from his home at Nacach postoffice, near the scene of the killing, by Constable Roy Crane. Heryford refuses to be interviewed, and will say nothing about the crime. At 7 o'clock last evening there were 92 prisoners in the tanks.

A FOOLHARDY TRICK.

They Tried to Cross in Front of the Train.

As the rapid transit train that leaves Los Angeles at 5 p.m. was crossing the El Monte road at Ramona on Wednesday, an Indian and a white man, who were driving toward El Monte, attempted to cross the track in front of the approaching engine. The engineer threw on the brakes, but could not avoid a collision. The cow-catcher struck a hindwheel of the wagon, and sent it flying in pieces through the air, dumping the men out on the road. The train was backed up to the crossing, and the unfortunate occupants of the wagon were found apparently dead or dying. After working with them for some time, they were put into the baggage car and taken to Alhambra. By the time they reached there, they had come to, and it was found that no bones were broken. Evidently they had both been pretty full, or they would not have attempted the foolhardy feat as they did. The team, which ran off with the remains of the wagon, soon broke loose from it, and took across the country. Not the slightest blame attaches to the trainmen, as the accident was unavoidable on their part. Those who suffered from it had full notice of the approach of the train, and were seen to whip up their horses in their attempt to beat it to the crossing.

A Fatal Dose.

The infant son of Deputy Janjero Hunter of the East Side came to his death Wednesday under peculiarly sad circumstances. The little fellow, who was only 22 months old, was playing about the house, when he got hold of some concentrated lye, which had been used in cleaning up, and, baby-like, put it into his mouth, burning his throat fearfully. Medical aid was at once called in, and everything possible was done for him, but without avail, as he was choked to death by the swelling of the membranes of the throat. The little fellow was buried yesterday.
